TOUR DESCRIPTIONS

Fort Irwin Tour

Friday, June 8

Embark on a tour of the Fort Irwin National Training Center and the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment. Fort Irwin is a major training area for the United States military and is a census-designated place located in the Mojave Desert in northern San Bernardino County, California. Fort Irwin is at an average elevation of 2,454 feet (748 m). It is located 37 miles (60 km) northeast of Barstow, in the Calico Mountains.

The National Training Center is part of the US Army Forces Command (FORSCOM). The opposing force at the National Training Center (NTC) is the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, the Blackhorse Cavalry, who are stationed at the base to provide an opposing force to units on a training rotation at Fort Irwin. In September 2017, a state-of-the-art hospital was opened that provides healthcare services to the Fort Irwin beneficiaries.

0630 board bus, 1630 back at hotel
$50/Person includes bus and guide.

Please be at the bus boarding area at least five minutes prior to the published time.
Driver and Guide Gratuities are not included in the tour prices
Each trip requires a minimum of thirty-five people per bus.
